the Arrears of Fensions Bill was passed some of the inmates found themselvee entitled to large sums of money under it, and employed an attorney to test the matter in the Courts. The decision will make some of the inmates of some of these institutions rich, for their pensions have been withheld in some cases as long as twenty years, and it is believed that any Court will hold, under the Supreme Court decision, that the inmates may recover all they have paid to the Home, with interest. A great majority of the inmates of these Homes are men who are totally disabled, and who are entitled to a large pension some of them as high as fifty and seventy dollars a month.

WELLSBURG.

Small Fire-Meeting of the Cemetery Wellsburg, January 20.

Last night about eleven o'clock fire was discovered issuing from the smokehouse connected with the butchering establishment of Peter Shuey, located just south of the mouth of Buffalo Creek. The alarm was given and a large number of our citizens repaired to the spot and by their exertions saved the slaughter house and the stable, both of which are located only a short distance from the consumed buildings. Mr. Shuev's loss will be about four or five hundred dollars. There was no meat of his now in the smokehouse. There were some ten or a dozen pieces belonging to neighbors which were undergoing the smoking process, in the smokehouse. The theory is that one of those pieces fell into the fire below, the flames therefrom setting fire to the building. The machinery in the rendering house was saved. A shepherd dog that was tied in the rendering house perished in the flames.

There is considerable sickness here, chiefly scarlet fever, and mostly confined to children.

Mr. Thos. Forbes has a little boy quite low with typhoid lever.

Capt. Eli Green is no better. There is no hopes of his recovery.

I must not omit to mention the fine chandeliers lately put up in the audience room of the Court House. They are an ornament to any building, and are of the kind that can be used for gas, with which the Court room will be lighted in the near future, unless Edison proves his light a success, when we expect to light our streets with it.
